

PHONICS- How can you help?

Below are a selection of websites you may find useful.

<http://www.mrthorne.com/> This site has a video explaining how to make the letter sounds and a range of other useful phonic resources.

The “Jolly Phonics” website is useful for the actions that go with the initial sounds

“Teach your monster to read” – You will need to create a username and password for the website.

“Phonics Play” has some free games and for a small fee, a number of games to suit each phase of phonics.