

Social, Moral, Spiritual and Cultural Education

Throughout the school there is a high emphasis on social, emotional, spiritual and cultural education which promotes British and Christian values. SMSC is woven into the life of the school. In our latest Ofsted Inspection it was stated :

“ A strong atmosphere of community and mutual respect exists throughout the school there is outstanding promotion of pupils’ spiritual, moral, social and cultural development.”

Challenging ourselves on a residential experience

A flag designed by the children that was flown in Parliament Square as part of the Magna Carta anniversary celebrations

Inviting our Grandparents to tea and finding out about their lives.

Whole School Road Safety walk- linked to the charity “Brake” with the older children taking care of the younger ones.

Opportunities to interact with nature and appreciate the world around us

Presentation by the police

An outdoor Easter Service – reflecting on the Easter story.

